Our Policy

Sephari Global Market Place is committed to compliance with the following Privacy Policy and applicable laws in order to maintain the privacy of personal information collected at this web site. We encourage you to read this Privacy Statement carefully. Unless you have "opted out" of receiving direct marketing contacts (as described below), when you provide any of the information described in this Privacy Statement (including information that may be automatically generated), you consent to the use and disclosure of that information as described by this statement.

The Information We Collect

Sephari Global Market Place may collect the following types of information from you at this web site:

Transaction Information

If you enter into a transaction (such as a purchase) at this web site, you will be required to provide information that is needed to complete the transaction, including your name, shipping address, product selection(s), and your payment information.

We do not keep any credit or other payment information longer than is necessary in order to comply with legal, tax, and auditing requirements. Other information you provide may be added to our company database(s) and shared with Sephari Global Market Place affiliates or third parties including distributors and retailers.

Automatically Collected Information

We may passively collect information that is automatically sent to us by your Web browser or your Internet Service Provider. This information typically includes your domain name, your user name, and your numerical IP address. The amount of information sent by your Web browser depends on its settings. Please refer to your browser if you want to learn what information it sends. We use this type of information to see which web pages you visit at our web site, which web site you visited before coming to our web site, and where you go after you leave our web site. We can then develop statistics that help us understand how our visitors use our web site and how we can improve it.

Cookie Generated Information

We may actively obtain information about you by installing a marker on your computer commonly called a "cookie." Cookies enable us to know you by a computer-generated, unique identifier. By providing you with a unique cookie, we are able to create a database of your previous choices and preferences, and in situations where these choices or preferences need to be collected again; they can be supplied by us automatically, saving you time and effort. For example, after you purchase a product once, if you need to purchase it again, your previous selections for size, color or other features will have been retained, and can be reentered more quickly. Your computer may be specially configured to reject cookies; please refer to your browser for more information. Some features on our web site may not work properly if you choose to reject cookies.

User-generated Information

We collect information at this web site when you contact us or respond to the surveys, questionnaires or applications we make available. If you email us, you are voluntarily releasing the content of your email to us (including your email address). If you answer questions we have placed on the web site page, you are also voluntarily releasing that information to us. You may decide not to answer any questions presented to you at our web site; if you do, you may still continue your visit, but we may elect not to provide you with services or features related to the questions you choose not to answer.

How Information is Used and Shared

Sephari Global Market Place may use any of the information gathered at this web site (other than credit information) for any legal purpose. We may analyze personal information for historical, statistical or scientific purposes, or we may store the personal information for your convenience should you return to this web site in the future. In the course of any of these activities, we may transmit any of the information we have collected to another country or share it with Sephari Global Market Place affiliates or third parties including distributors and retailers. An example of a third party that could receive your personal information is a physician [medi-spa?] that provides products which you may have inquired about at our web site. Whenever any personal information is transferred to an affiliate or third party, that party will be contractually bound to abide by our Privacy Policy.

We may also use your personal information to investigate security breaches or cooperate with government authorities pursuant to a legal matter. Personal information collected online may also be combined with information you have provided to Sephari Global Market Place through other sources such as product registrations, call centers, or publicly such as at trade shows or seminars.

In addition, we may have collected similar information from you in the past, before this Privacy Policy took effect. By using this web site you agree to the terms of this Privacy Statement. By agreeing to the terms of this Privacy Statement you are consenting to our continued use of previously collected information under the terms of this Privacy Statement.

Sephari Global Market Place may use all information collected at this web site for direct marketing purposes including the sharing of the information with Sephari Global Market Place affiliates or third parties including distributors and retailers unless you specifically request that it not be used for that purpose.

Links to Other Sites

For your convenience, this page may contain certain hyperlinks to other Sephari Global Market Place web sites as well as to third party non-Sephari web sites. While Sephari Global Market Place web sites are subject to this Privacy Statement, we can make no promises or guarantees regarding data collection on the hyperlinked pages and sites that are not owned by Sephari Global Market Place. We therefore recommend that you read the privacy statement for each third party site you visit. Website Design by Sacramento Pro Web Design
